ANNUAL REPORT.

Boston, December 31, 1920.

To His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

In accordance with the provisions of section 23, chapter 327, General Acts of 1917, I respectfully submit the annual report of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia for the year ending December 31, 1920. Appended are the reports of the chiefs of departments and staff corps, the Armory Commission and the War Records Bureau.

ENROLLED MILITIA.

On December 31, 1920, the total enrolled militia of the Commonwealth was 658,596, an increase of 19,549 over 1919.

STATE GUARD.

The organization of the State Guard has been maintained throughout the year as a measure of protection should the occasion arise for its use. No necessity for its use to aid the civil authorities has arisen, and it has maintained the usual drills, omitting, however, the tour of camp duty. The organization of the National Guard has made it difficult to maintain the interest in the State Guard, and both officers and men are entitled to much credit for keeping the Guard together and holding the esprit of the organization.

As new National Guard units were organized and recognized in the several cities and towns of the Commonwealth, the State Guard company in that locality transferred its ordnance equipment to the National Guard company, and the State Guard company was mustered out. This transfer of ordnance property to the new company insured some measure of protection should it become necessary to call upon the military authorities for aid. When the new equipment requisitioned for arrived, the old equipment was turned in to the arsenal.

On December 23 the ceremony of returning the colors of all units who had served in the State Guard from its organization was observed at the State House. The color guards with their colors, accompanied by such officers of their organization as could be present, were formed on Beacon Street, facing the State House, with a band on the right of the line. The Governor with his staff came down the steps of the State House to the sidewalk. The colors were then presented and the band played the national anthem. The Governor with his staff then proceeded up the steps into the Hall of Flags, followed by the band and the colors. When all had taken position in the Hall of Flags, Brigadier General Samuel D. Parker, the senior officer of the State Guard present, made a short speech, turning the colors over to the Governor. The band played "To the Color." The Governor replied, receiving the colors on behalf of the State, and directing the commanding officers to retain their custody for the present. The color guards then marched out and the ceremony was over.

The State Guard goes out of service with a fine record of efficiency. No military organization that the State has maintained in the last thirty years has shown a finer spirit of devotion to the Commonwealth or greater efficiency in performing the work that has befallen it. The service rendered by this organization in guarding the docks and wharves in the severe winter of 1917; its service rendered to the stricken city of Halifax, N. S., after its disastrous explosion; in the influenza epidemic of 1918; and in the Boston police strike of 1919, — all will go down in history as fine examples of what a loyal citizen soldiery can do when a crisis arises in the community. All honor to the officers and men of the State Guard, who showed such a patriotic sense of public duty, who gave freely of their time and money to serve the Commonwealth in its time of need.

The Legislature of 1920 provided for a suitable button to be issued to every officer and man who served at least one year at any time, or thirty days in the Boston police strike. These have been procured by The Adjutant General and issued to the Guard. The style selected was a small bronze button bearing the Indian with bow and arrow, with the dates, "1917-1920," and inscribed on the outer rim, "Massachusetts State Guard — War Service."

REORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GUARD.

The plan for the reorganization of the Massachusetts National Guard submitted by a Board appointed in August, 1919, did not meet with favor, either by the Federal or the State authorities. Whether or not these recommendations were good, they at least started something.

On January 12, 1920, a new Board was appointed by Your Excellency, consisting of The Adjutant General, ex officio, Brig. Gen. John H. Sherburne, Col. Edward L. Logan, Col. Alfred F. Foote, Lieut. Col. Stephen W. Sleeper and Maj. Edward J. Sampson, to consider the subject of reorganization and report recommendations to Your Excellency.

The Board held many meetings and gave the subject much consideration, and finally recommended the following tentative plan for a reorganization, which was in accord with the allotment made by the Militia Bureau: —

REPORT OF THE BOARD.

FEBRUARY 4, 1920.

From: Board appointed under Special Orders, No. 9, The Adjutant General's Office, Massachusetts, current series.
To: His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
Subject: Recommendations in re Reorganization of Massachusetts National Guard.

The Board appointed under the provisions of Paragraph 1, Special Orders, No. 9, The Adjutant General's Office, Massachusetts, current series, to advise His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in regard to the reorganization of the National Guard, respectfully submits the following recommendations: —

It is the desire of the Militia Bureau to organize a complete division in the New England States, and the allotment of troops to Massachusetts is as follows: —

- 1 Division Headquarters Troop.
- 1 Infantry Brigade Headquarters.
- 2 Regiments of Infantry.
- 1 Separate Battalion of Infantry, to be converted into a Machine Gun unit when the Machine Gun organization for the Regular Army is finally adopted.
- 1 Squadron of Cavalry.
- 1 Headquarters Troop Cavalry.
- 1 Separate Troop Cavalry.
- 1 Field Artillery Brigade Headquarters.
- 2 Regiments Field Artillery, 75 mm.
- 1 Regiment of Engineers and train, train to be organized in Headquarters and supply sections only.
- 1 Field Battalion Signal Troops.
- 1 Train Headquarters and Military Police.
- 1 Supply Train, motorized.
- 1 Sanitary Train Headquarters.
- 2 Field Hospital companies, motorized.
- 1 Veterinary Unit.
- 16 companies, Coast Artillery Corps.

In addition to the above units it is contemplated that Massachusetts will be given the opportunity to organize the following regiments for use as corps or army troops: —

- 1 Regiment Infantry.
- 1 Regiment Engineers.

The Board has had a difficult problem to fit the allotment made by the Militia Bureau into the former organizations of the Massachusetts National Guard. In endeavoring to do this the Board recommends that in the proposed reorganization an attempt be made to reorganize more nearly on geographical lines than heretofore. This, of course, necessitates breaking up old regimental organizations, but company units can be retained.

In submitting this preliminary plan for reorganization it must be understood that the recommendations are tentative only, and many changes may be made necessary as circumstances arise.

In assigning units to armories it is recommended that the former National Guard unit in that armory and the State Guard units in the immediate vicinity be merged, and that, upon the acceptance of the new unit, the former units of the State Guard shall be discharged from the State service.

It is not intended to organize new units, but to reorganize the old organizations, and to continue their records and history. Of the units of the old 26th Division, the 2d and 9th Regiments Infantry, which were the basis of the 101st and 104th Regiments Infantry, are perpetuated in those organizations; in this plan the Machine Gun Battalion is turned back to Cavalry and the Engineers to the Machine Gun Battalion, fitting their armories and best development, the First and Second Massachusetts Field Artillery remaining the 101st and 102d Field Artillery, respectively.

The other units of the former National Guard are perpetuated in the 5th Regiment, becoming Engineers, and the probability that the organization of the additional Army or Corps Troops will perpetuate the 6th Regiment of Infantry as the Infantry Regiment, and the 8th Regiment Infantry as the Engineer Regiment of the Army or Corps Troops.

The State Guard will merge with and become part of the companies in each locality where a company is organized, opportunity being afforded those officers and men who desire to remain in the service to be transferred to the new units as far as possible, and the designations of the State Guard units will cease when the new organizations are formed.

In making this tentative assignment, there are seven armories to which no units are assigned. It is recommended that a provisional regiment, to be designated the Provisional Regiment of Infantry,

Corps or Army Troops, be organized, as far as the existing armory facilities permit. This will be based on the 6th Regiment and units, assigned as follows:—

Headquarters, . . . . .	}

The company to be assigned to the Bulfinch Street Armory, Boston, to be former Company L of the 6th Regiment Infantry, with the idea of giving this company an opportunity to expand into a battalion as a part of the Provisional Regiment.

The Provisional Regiment of Engineers will be organized from the 8th Massachusetts Infantry.

This plan was immediately approved by Your Excellency and an Executive Order issued on March 15, 1920. Some changes in location have since been made necessary by circumstances. In the meantime the Military Service Commission, provided for under section 105, chapter 327 of the General Acts of 1917, had been functioning, and an eligible list of officers for the various grades had been established. The Board recommended to the Governor names of officers for commanding officers of the several organizations, and they were appointed and qualified under the new law for the selection of officers. As soon as commanding officers had qualified, they in turn recommended their subordinates, who were immediately appointed and qualified. Recruiting officers were detailed in each organization, and recruiting at once started. The tentative plan naturally at once aroused opposition in some quarters. This was to be expected, since the reorganization, based upon the allotment of troops to Massachusetts by the Federal government, involved changing practically every old organization. It was felt by the Board that organizations should be concentrated as far as possible. This naturally caused units which had been attached for years to old regiments to be attached to new regiments, and in many cases the arm of the service was changed. As time went on, the wisdom of the new changes became more apparent, the opposition, except in a few places, faded away, and all started in with the determination to produce a better Guard than the State had ever possessed. The program was an ambitious one, because Massachusetts has always been proud of its National Guard, and justly so.

The result has been most encouraging. The recruiting, while slow during the summer months, has increased so rapidly that units are now seeking Federal recognition faster than the State can care for them. The following table shows the Federal recognition of units by months:—

	Units
June, . . . . .	8
July, . . . . .	2
August, . . . . .	1
September, . . . . .	10
October, . . . . .	21
November, . . . . .	28
December, . . . . .	3

One regiment of infantry, one regiment of engineers and one squadron of cavalry have been completely organized.

It was necessary for each company, troop or battery to have at least two officers and fifty enlisted men to secure Federal recognition. Almost every unit has presented more than the requisite number for inspection.

Recruiting was held up in December owing to changes in the allotment made to Massachusetts. A new program was adopted by the General Staff at Washington, and until definite information could be secured it was thought best to go slowly in order that there might be as little change as possible made in those organizations that were already recognized.

In November the four companies of the Worcester battalion of the 104th Infantry, and Company E of Holyoke of the same regiment, requested permission to hold a fifteen days' camp at Camp Devens. The idea was not looked upon favorably at first on account of the lateness of the season, but the organizations were so enthusiastic about the tour that permission was finally obtained from the Militia Bureau. The battalion performed a wonderful piece of work. Officers and men were enthusiastic, and worked hard and won the respect and admiration of the military authorities. The report of the Inspector-Instructor was so commendatory it was embodied in a letter from the Commanding General, 1st Corps Area, and is given below.

HEADQUARTERS 1ST CORPS AREA, 99 CHAUNCY STREET,
BOSTON 11, MASS., November 23, 1920.

From: Commanding General, 1st Corps Area.
To: The Adjutant General of Massachusetts, Boston 9, Mass.
Subject: Comments on Report of Camp of Instruction, 1st Battalion and Company E, 2d Regiment Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard.

1. The report of the inspector on duty with the 1st Battalion and Company E, 2d Regiment Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, during the Camp of Instruction at Camp Devens, Mass., November 6 to 20, 1920, shows in detail the excellent work accomplished by the officers and men of these organizations. As the Commanding General, I commend each officer and man for his earnest attention to duty and for his efforts to become an efficient member of the forces for the national defence.

2. Particularly worthy of commendation are the following: —

- (a) General condition of arms and equipment, excellent.
- (b) Observance of military courtesy, excellent.
- (c) Promptness, excellent.
- (d) Orderliness, excellent.
- (e) Attendance of officers and men, excellent.
- (f) All companies maintained excellent discipline and excellent messes; but in the daily inspection Companies A and C excelled, and in the final inspection Company C excelled all other companies.

(g) Degree of proficiency of officers as instructors, very good to excellent.

(h) Names of officers who displayed exceptional ability: Maj. Howard W. Robbins, commanding, had complete control of his command and maintained excellent discipline and esprit; First Lieut. William H. McGarry, Company E, musketry specialist; First Lieut. Fred J. Maloney, Company C, bayonet training and musketry specialist; First Lieut. William M. Snow, battalion adjutant, automatic rifle specialist.

DAVID C. SHANKS,
Major General, United States Army, Commanding.

The Adjutant General, accompanied by the State Quartermaster, the State Inspector, Adjutant General, Officer in Charge of Militia Affairs for the Corps Area and the Inspector-Instructor of Engineers, visited the camp and spent an entire afternoon inspecting the work of the battalion.

The material of the new Guard consists largely of new men who have never before seen military service. They are a clean-cut, fine-looking set of young fellows, imbued with the ambition to emulate the deeds of the men of Massachusetts who saw service in the World War. With this material the future success of the new Guard seems an assured fact.

Since the organization of the National Guard commenced, 169 men have been discharged from the new Guard, and of this number, 101 have been discharged to enlist in the army or navy. Besides recruiting for the National Guard, we have been recruiting for the army and navy also.

Massachusetts has always been fortunate in the character of the Inspector-Instructors who have been detailed here. The character of the Inspector-Instructors already assigned is every bit the equal of those who have been our teachers in the past. They all possess the spirit of the National Guard, and have worked hard and enthusiastically to make the reorganization a success. The co-operation of the Commanding General of the 1st Corps Area and all his staff, especially Col. Louis C. Scherer, Officer in Charge of Militia Affairs, has been of great assistance and very gratifying. The spirit existing in this State between the army and the Guard is of the best.

The strength of the Massachusetts National Guard is now 379 officers and 4,486 enlisted men. The strength required by the Militia Bureau by July 1, 1921, is 5,400 officers and enlisted men.

On September 1 Lieut. Col. Thomas D. Barroll was relieved from duty in The Adjutant General's Office at his own request, and again placed on the retired list, with the rank of colonel. Colonel Barroll was placed on active duty at the beginning of the work in connection with the selective draft in 1917, and his services in the office of The Adjutant General have been of great value to the State. He was succeeded by Lieut. Col. George I. Cross who would have been an ideal officer for the position, but unfortunately for the State he was offered a commission in the army, which he accepted. He left the service of the State on December 11. The army has gained a good officer.

The change in the law providing for the appointment of officers from an eligible list seems to be working out well. While it is perhaps too early to judge the full benefits of the change, it is a fact that the new system has simplified the work of reorganizing the Guard.

PROVISIONAL MILITIA.

The Provisional Militia provided for by chapter 138, General Acts of 1919, having served its purpose, was disbanded by Executive Order, and the officers and enlisted men have been discharged.

Naval Militia.

The Navy Department having taken up the matter of reorganizing the Naval Reserve, such officers and enlisted men as still remained upon the rolls have been discharged, and the Naval Militia no longer exists as a part of the military forces of the Commonwealth.

The mere statement that the Provisional Militia, Naval Militia and State Guard have been disbanded, and buttons issued to the State Guard under the act of the Legislature, conveys little idea to those unacquainted with military affairs of the amount of work involved. In the Provisional Militia there were 2,113 discharges made out and signed by The Adjutant General; in the Naval Militia there were 978; and in the State Guard, 1,517. In issuing buttons to the State Guard it was necessary to look up the records of 15,063 officers and men and send the buttons to them. There has been an increasing tendency to request this Department to do a large amount of work not contemplated in the original budget. While the office stands ready at all times to assist in any way it can in carrying out the military policies of the Commonwealth, it must be remembered that the office is organized for its normal work, and any increase in the volume of that work means more money and more clerks. The office will cheerfully undertake any military task imposed upon it, provided it is given the money and clerks to work with.

Spanish War Records.

Chapter 211, Special Acts of 1919, provides for the completion of the records of the soldiers and sailors of the Spanish War. These record cards have been completed and require only copying to place them in shape for publication.

Philippine Insurrection Records.

Chapter 357, Acts of 1920, provides for the compilation and publication of the records of soldiers, sailors and marines of Massachusetts who served during the Insurrection.

There were organized for the Philippine Insurrection, twenty-four regiments of volunteer infantry, numbered from the 26th to the 49th, and one regiment of volunteer cavalry, the 11th. Work on only one of these regiments has been done, namely, the 26th, owing to the inadequate appropriation.

Eight hundred and ninety-four names of men claiming Massachusetts as their residence were found, and cards thereof made and the names recorded in alphabetical order in book form.

This regiment, organized at Plattsburg, probably contained a far greater number of Massachusetts men than all the other regiments combined.

It was necessary to examine carefully both the muster-in and muster-out rolls of each company, and in many instances the personal papers file and card record files, in order to determine definitely as to the residence of the soldier, and whether any charge of desertion had been removed.

About 5,000 cards showing service numbers have been made of the men from Massachusetts who served in the navy. These numbers were obtained by careful examination of the punched card files which contained records of about 70,000 men from Massachusetts who served in the navy. The next step will be to consult the index file and obtain the names of the men represented by the numbers on the 5,000 cards, provided the index cards show the men served during the Insurrection period. Then it will be necessary to draw the jacket file for each name, and record the desired data on a card for our files. Files of the Bureau of Navigation contain about 1,000,000 records, and by the above process it is estimated one or two thousand will be selected from the million.

Thirty-three cards containing complete records of Massachusetts men who served in the Marine Corps have been received. These cover the years 1894 and 1895. When a new appropriation has been secured, the work here should begin with 1896 and continue over the Insurrection period. As the enlistments were for five years at the time of the Insurrection, it was necessary to begin with the year 1894, inasmuch as men enlisting in that year and serving the full term might have seen service during the Insurrection period, and it was necessary to examine each individual jacket to ascertain which of the men claimed Massachusetts residence, and which served during the period in question. As many men were re-enlisted it was often necessary to search prior and subsequent years to be certain of the information.

The work has been carefully done, much of it of a preliminary nature, and another appropriation should produce considerably greater results. It is recommended that the work be continued and the appropriation asked for granted.

WORLD WAR RECORDS.

The work on the World War records is progressing satisfactorily. There are now completed or partially completed records of officers and enlisted men of the army, navy and Marine Corps numbering 132,449, divided as follows:—

Partially completed records of officers of —

The army,	. . . . .	1,880
The navy,	. . . . .	1,444
The marine corps,	. . . . .	89

Completed records of enlisted men of —

The army,	. . . . .	58,903
The navy,	. . . . .	14,606
The marine corps,	. . . . .	456

Partially completed records of enlisted men of —

The army,	. . . . .	17,377
The navy,	. . . . .	35,496
The marine corps,	. . . . .	2,198

Total,	. . . . .	132,449

The office has received from The Adjutant General of the army 3,808 records of officers and men who died in service or were killed. These do not show the place where the death occurred or where the man was killed, and are therefore of little use as permanent records. An attempt is being made to require The Adjutant General of the army to furnish this information to the several States.

There have also been received 11,312 records of enlisted men.

There has been made a list of 6,758 men of Massachusetts who were commissioned as officers during the war. This list is not complete, but has been made so that the office might have some information pending the time when the War Department could furnish official information.

In addition, the office has on file the records of 5,544 men who enlisted in the navy during the year 1919, and 3,240 men who enlisted in the navy during the year 1920.

There is also a partial list of men who received decorations. Most of the work on these records has been from material collected by the State authorities, as the War Department is not yet in a position to furnish the information desired.

In connection with these records there have been secured from the colleges in the State lists of men who entered the service. This information, while not official, gives to the State some knowledge of what her sons have done, while waiting for the Federal government to furnish official information.

There have been collected some 622 photographs of Massachusetts units that served in the World War. These photographs were taken at the various cantonments, forts, etc. They have been bound up in eight volumes, and form a permanent and valuable record for the future.

There have also been secured a number of histories of Massachusetts organizations in the war.

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES.

During the year there have been two meetings of the Adjutants General of the New England States, one in Boston and one in Providence, R. I. There has been one conference of the New England Adjutants General, the Commanding General, 1st Corps Area, and a representative of the General Staff of the War Department. These meetings have been of benefit in cementing closer the relations between the military authorities of the New England States and the Commanding General of the 1st Corps Area.

NEW ARMORY

For the last two years the people of Quincy have been urging upon the Legislature the necessity of an armory in Quincy. The project has been opposed by the military authorities until such time as it was possible to forecast the future of the National Guard. That time has now arrived. For some time prior to the war Quincy had a unit of the old 6th Infantry housed in inadequate quarters. The growth of the city in the last three years, with the development of the shipbuilding industry, has now made it necessary to procure adequate quarters for enlarged National Guard units. There is no suitable accommodation in Quincy for housing a company. It is therefore recommended that a two-company armory be erected this year. An appropriation has been asked for by the Armory Commissioners. Attention is invited to the fact that one or more units of the National Guard should be located in Quincy, and under the law the Armory Commissioners must prepare adequate quarters for such units of the Guard as are not properly housed.

OFFICIAL VISITS.

During the year the Commonwealth has been honored by the visit of Gen. John J. Pershing on February 25; a representation of Japanese and Portuguese naval officers on July 9; English and French naval officers on September 2; Gen. Marie Emile Fayolle of the French Army on October 8; and Gen. Georges Robert Nivelle of the French Army on December 3.

TABLET.

Under authority of chapter 18, Resolves of 1920, The Adjutant General has made arrangements for the erection of a tablet commemorating the service of the 2d Massachusetts Infantry, M. V. M., in the War with Spain. The design of the tablet has been approved by the committee from the regiment and by the Governor and Council. It will be in place in the Springfield State Armory ready for dedication on June 22, 1921, the date of the reunion of the regiment.

WORLD WAR CERTIFICATES.

Chapter 172, General Acts of 1919, requires The Adjutant General to procure and issue a certificate to every person who served in the army, navy or Marine Corps who was a resident of the Commonwealth at the time of muster-in to the service. A suitable certificate, conforming in general character to those issued for service in previous wars, has been prepared, and application blanks have been sent out. Some 30,000 applications have been received, and out of this number some 11,000 certificates have been issued. It is necessary to check up the applicant's service, and owing to lack of the records of many men, a number of applicants have not yet received their certificates. As fast as records can be received from Washington, the records of service are checked and certificates issued. Great care has to be exercised, to the end that every person entitled to a certificate shall receive it.

STATE POLICE FORCE.

By a resolve of the Legislature of 1920 The Adjutant General and the Commissioner of Public Safety were appointed to investigate as to the necessity and desirability of establishing a State police force. The committee have investigated the subject and made the report to the Legislature.

INTELLIGENCE BUREAU.

The Intelligence Bureau has continued to be of great service to the Commonwealth. The services have been of value to other departments, but with a return to peace-time organization its work must now be confined to strictly military intelligence. Much of the work that the Bureau has been called upon to perform must be referred to other departments of the Commonwealth, or, if that cannot be done, a Bureau should be started to care for such work as is not of a military nature.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

The old spirit for rifle shooting, which has made the Commonwealth famous in former days, is still very much alive.

In August the National Guard organizations had not progressed sufficiently for a National Guard team. A civilian rifle team was organized which participated in the matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. The Massachusetts team distinguished itself in all of the matches, but the great feature was the winning of the Herrick trophy, with a score of 1,735. This was a world's record, beating the previous high score of 1,700 made by the Massachusetts team in 1909.

The success of the civilian team at Camp Perry was so inspiring that a movement was immediately started to organize a National Guard team to participate in the national matches at Sea Girt, N. J., from September 1 to 10, 1920. Many of the members of the civilian team qualified for the National Guard and were mustered in, and Massachusetts was represented in the national matches at Sea Girt by a National Guard team.

The success of the team was phenomenal. Out of nine team matches entered, Massachusetts won seven first prizes, one second prize and six in the other matches. The team also won the McAlpin trophy, the 71st Regiment trophy, the Cruikshank trophy, the interstate regimental team trophy, the New York Company team match, the cavalry team match and the New Jersey team match.

The team took second place in the Dryden trophy match, losing to the United States Infantry by only nine points.

At the matches held by the United Services of New England at the Wakefield Range October 8 to 12, 1920, the Massachusetts team still maintained its fine esprit. Out of eleven matches the Massachusetts team took seven first prizes, five second prizes, two third prizes and one fourth prize.

The great event of this last match was the winning by a two-man team of the Massachusetts National Guard of the United States Marine Corps long distance match, shot at 800 and 1,000 yards.

RECOMMENDATION.

Owing to the fact that the organization of the National Guard is not yet completed, and the additional fact that the personnel and the grade of said personnel in The Adjutant General's Department is dependent upon the number of troops in the National Guard, I hereby recommend that the provision in section 24 of chapter 327 of the General Acts of 1917, which provides for an assistant adjutant general with the rank of lieutenant colonel and fixes his compensation therefor, be repealed, and that legislation broad enough to cover future requirements of this position under the War Department's regulations be adopted: —

SECTION 1. Section twenty-four of chapter three hundred and twenty-seven of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by section one of chapter two hundred and eighty of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and nineteen, and section one of chapter three hundred and sixty-four of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "An adjutant general, rank of lieutenant colonel, adjutant general's department, shall receive a salary of twenty-two hundred dollars a year", and substituting the following: — An adjutant general of such rank as is now or may in the future be required by the regulations of the war department shall receive such compensation as the governor and council may approve.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

OFFICE ADMINISTRATION.

The work of the Department has steadily increased, owing to the numerous tasks imposed upon it by the Legislature, and the work incident to mustering out and discharging the Provisional Militia, the Naval Militia and the State Guard. The work of reorganizing the National Guard has also added a great burden. That the office has been able to accomplish as much as it has is due not because of the assistance rendered by those departments who should have assisted, but rather in spite of the obstacles that have been presented. The office force has worked hard and faithfully, and The Adjutant General desires to express his appreciation of their services.

REPORT OF THE INTELLIGENCE BUREAU, THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 31, 1920.

To The Adjutant General.

SIR:—The Intelligence Department has the honor to make the following report of its activities for the year ending December 31, 1920.

The work of the department has this year been divided into three parts:—

1. The obtaining of data for the military intelligence files, such as maps and statistics.
2. The intelligence work among foreigners.
3. The investigation of many matters referred to this department by the Bank Commissioner, Attorney General and other State departments.

First.—Under this heading the work this year has developed two immediate uses: (a) the collection of such data and information for the use of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and (b) the use of the same by the Intelligence Service of the 1st Corps Area. Throughout the year there has been the closest co-operation between this office and the assistant chief of staff for the 1st Corps Area, which has proven most satisfactory. There is on file now in this department a set of data, with map material, which it is believed is at least the equal of any such material on file in any other State for the use of military work.

Second.—This section of the Intelligence Bureau, under Mrs. W. L. Putnam, has handled a great many translations during the past year and rendered assistance to many other State departments in foreign work. This office has also put out a great many pamphlets and leaflets which have been, it is reported, of great assistance to the foreign element in the State. Surveys and other work done by this department placed on file in this Bureau data which will be of inestimable value in the future to other departments in the State.

Third. — The work in this division has far exceeded, during the current year, anything which the head of the department estimated. Matters have been investigated for many other State departments, and the employees of the office have been kept busy on this work practically throughout the year, and for that reason the employing of outside help was necessary many times in order to keep the routine work of the department up to date. This branch of the work appears to be necessary, and in this connection it is fair to say that good results were obtained according to reports received from those departments for which work was done.

On December 1 the department as a State Guard Bureau went out of existence, and the work was taken up by employees of The Adjutant General's office under the same direction.

The writer believes that it is only fair to other departments, but more especially to The Adjutant General of the Commonwealth, to say that the functions exercised by this Bureau during the year 1920 have far exceeded the purposes for which it was formed, and for that reason it is recommended that the Legislature take cognizance of the fact that there is need of co-ordination of these civil investigations under one head, so that much work can be done properly and with less expense to the Commonwealth.

The writer desires to thank Maj. Theodore K. Spencer of the 1st Corps Area for his untiring zeal and kindness in giving a course of instruction to the officers of this department.

In filing this report for the year, the writer has the honor to turn over to you data which it is believed that both you and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts will feel proud of, and it is hoped that this work will be continued and these files be kept up to date.

In closing, the writer desires to thank The Adjutant General for his consideration and kindness during the year just past, and also to express his gratitude for the loyalty and co-operation of the officers and clerks of the Intelligence Bureau.

Your obedient servant,

ROBERT O. DALTON,
Major in Charge.

REPORT OF THE MILITARY SERVICE COMMISSION.

---

BOSTON, December 15, 1920.To The Adjutant General.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 105, chapter 327, General Acts of 1917, this Commission was established by authority of paragraph 1, Special Orders, No. 38, The Adjutant General's Office, dated February 26, 1920. The following named officers were detailed: —

Brig. Gen. John J. Sullivan, M. N. G., Retired, for one year.

Col. Alfred F. Foote, 104th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M. (now Colonel Inspector General, M. N. G.), for two years.

Lieut. Col. Frank S. Perkins, 101st Regiment Field Artillery, M. V. M. (now Colonel, 2d Regiment Field Artillery, M. N. G.), for three years.

The Commission met for organization March 2, 1920, and it appeared that it would be necessary to request The Adjutant General to order an additional officer to duty with the Commission to act as recorder, and, in accordance with paragraph 1, Special Orders, No. 47, The Adjutant General's Office, dated March 11, 1920, Capt. James W. Boyer, Jr., 104th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M. (now captain in 1st Coast Defence Command), was ordered to report.

In accordance with provisions of the act, above noted, it is the duty of the Commission to establish an eligible officers' list, from which all commissioned officers must be selected. In order to make known the requirements necessary to be placed on the eligible list, Circulars Nos. 1 and 2 were issued (Appendices A and B) from The Adjutant General's office upon recommendation of this Commission.

It has been the aim of this Commission to co-operate to the fullest extent with each organization commander in expediting where practicable such applicants as were desired for immediate appointment, and with this view in mind the Commission has met each week to examine orally those applicants who have at some time been commissioned in the United States Army, and on the second Monday of each month for the purpose of giving such written examinations as were necessary for those who were not commissioned.

The scope of these examinations is outlined in paragraph 4, Appendix B, hereto appended.

Also appended hereto is a table (Appendix C) showing the number of applicants examined for certification to determine their eligibility to be placed on the officers' eligibility list in each grade and branch of service.

The Board of Medical Officers, appointed by the Commander-in-Chief to act in co-operation with this Commission, has met simultaneously with the Commission, and the utmost harmony has prevailed.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
BOSTON, March 16, 1920.

CIRCULAR No. 1.

I. REORGANIZATION OF NATIONAL GUARD — SELECTION OF OFFICERS.

1. STATE LAWS.

The following information relative to the selection of officers in the reorganization of the National Guard is published for the information of all concerned:

All military and naval officers shall be selected and appointed and may be removed in such manner as the general court may by law prescribe, but no such officer shall be appointed unless he shall have passed an examination prepared by a competent commission or shall have served one year in either the federal or state militia or in military service. All such officers who are entitled by law to receive commissions shall be commissioned by the governor. (Fifty-third Amendment to the Constitution. Printed as Article 148, Rearranged Constitution.)

All commissioned officers of the land forces shall be selected from the eligible officers' list, as provided in section one hundred and five of chapter three hundred and twenty-seven of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by section five of chapter three hundred and one of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and nineteen, and by section four of this act, in the manner following:— General officers and chiefs of departments shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list.

Regimental and separate unit commanders shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list upon the recommendation of superior commanders, if any.

All other officers of the line shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list upon the recommendation of regimental or separate unit commanders, approved by superior commanders, if any.

Departmental officers shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list upon the recommendation of the chief of the department in which the appointment is to be made. (Section 1, Chapter 127, Acts of 1920.)

(a) The commander-in-chief shall, upon the passage of this act, appoint or detail a military service commission to consist of three commissioned officers, who shall be appointed for one, two and three years, respectively, and thereafter each commissioner shall be appointed for the term of three years.

(b) The military service commission shall establish an eligible officers' list for all commissioned grades in the land forces.

(c) The commission shall from time to time prepare rules regulating the selection of persons to fill commissioned office in the land forces. Such rules may be of a general or limited application and shall include provisions for: (1) the classification of all grades to be filled; (2) open, competitive and other examinations to test the practical fitness of applicants; (3) the filling of vacancies in and selection of persons for commission in the land forces, in accordance with the fitness of applicants and the results of such examination or otherwise; and shall take effect only when approved by the commander-in-chief.

(d) The commission may designate commissioned officers of the regular army or land forces to act as examiners of particular grades or branches of the service.

(e) The commission and examiners shall receive such pay for duty performed and may incur such expenses as the commander-in-chief shall order.

(f) The commission shall prepare a full record of its proceedings and findings in the case of each person appearing before it for examination.

(g) All examinations as to physical qualifications to hold office in the land forces shall be made by a board of three medical officers appointed by the commander-in-chief. If the board of medical officers finds that an officer is physically competent to perform the duties of his office, it shall certify that fact to the commander-in-chief; if, in the opinion of the medical board, an officer is not physically fit to perform his duties, it shall transmit a report to the commander-in-chief setting forth the nature of the disabilities found and the manner and extent to which such disabilities are likely to prevent or impair the full performance of the duties of the office. Whenever the commander-in-chief finds that an officer who has been reported by the medical board to be physically unsound possesses professional and general qualifications of a high order, and that his physical disabilities will not materially impair his efficiency as an officer, he may thereupon waive such physical disabilities and order the officer to duty. A detailed description of such disabilities and all reports and facts resulting in a waiver of the same shall be entered in the military record of the officer concerned.

(h) An officer who has been certified as eligible for his grade, if appointed and assigned to duty in that grade, shall not be required to take another examination under the rules adopted by authority of subsection (c) in order to continue to hold the same commission. But the military service commission may, by rule or regulation, limit the length of time during which an applicant's name may remain on an eligible list without re-examination.

(i) Officers appointed from one office to another of equal or lower grade in the same branch of the militia service, chaplains, and retired officers, shall be exempt from all examinations under this act, as to professional and practical qualifications.

(j) Subject to Article LIII of the articles of amendment of the constitution, any person certified as eligible for any specified grade in the national guard under the laws of the United States shall be placed on the eligible list by the military service commission without professional examination. The commission shall prepare the final examination of the training school, and its graduates shall be placed on the eligible list. (Section 105, Chapter 327, General Acts of 1917, as amended.)

This new act makes no change of two very pertinent sections of chapter 327, General Acts of 1917, generally referred to as the Militia Law, viz.:

SECTION 85. (Page 29, Militia Law.) . . . NO PERSON SHALL RECEIVE A COMMISSION IN THE NATIONAL GUARD UNLESS HE HAS BEEN SELECTED FROM SUCH CLASSES AS MAY BE PRESCRIBED BY THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. (See Section 74, National Defense Act, June 3, 1916, N. G. R., Par. 223.)

SECTION 106. (Page 33, Militia Law.) NO PERSON HEREAFTER COMMISSIONED AS AN OFFICER IN THE NATIONAL GUARD SHALL ENTER UPON THE PERFORMANCE OF HIS OFFICIAL DUTIES OR EXERCISE ANY COMMAND UNLESS HE SHALL HAVE TAKEN AND SUBSCRIBED TO THE OATH OF OFFICE, SHALL HAVE BEEN SELECTED FROM SUCH CLASSES, AND SHALL HAVE SUCCESSFULLY PASSED SUCH TESTS AS TO HIS PHYSICAL, MORAL AND PROFESSIONAL FITNESS AS ARE PRESCRIBED BY THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, EXCEPT THAT AN OFFICER MAY BE ORDERED TO DUTY PENDING SUCH TESTS AS HEREINBEFORE PROVIDED.

2. UNITED STATES LAWS.

(1) Classes from which to be selected.

National Defense Act of June 3, 1916, section 74, prescribes the classes from which officers shall be selected. This is followed verbatim in paragraph 223, N. G. R.:

Officers must be selected from one of the following classes:

(a) Officers and enlisted men of the National Guard.

(NOTE. — No organization is National Guard until formally extended Federal recognition by the Secretary of War.)

(b) Officers of the National Guard Reserve.

(c) Officers and former officers of the United States Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

(Persons who have served as officers of the United States Volunteers or of National Guard or Organized Militia, drafted into the United States service are held to qualify in this class.)

(d) Graduates of the United States Military or Naval Academies or of a school, college or university having a military course (in which the applicant qualified) under supervision of an officer of the Regular Army.

(e) "Especially qualified civilians" may be appointed in staff positions. The special qualifications for the particular staff corps or department must be clearly shown in each case, and must include "Previous service" in military forces. (See Section 87, Massachusetts Militia Law.)

(NOTE. — In case it is desired to appoint as an officer a person otherwise qualified but who does not at the time belong to one of above classes, it will be necessary for him to qualify under section 74, National Defense Act, by enlisting in some National Guard unit of the State that has already been extended Federal recognition by the Secretary of War.)

The limits of age for grade qualifications are as follows: All must be at least 21, second lieutenants not over 32; first lieutenants not over 36; captains not over 40; majors not over 45; lieutenant colonels not over 50; colonels not over 55; general officers not over 60. Medical officers for the units about to be organized should be selected and appointed as early as possible, and should be utilized to make the necessary physical examinations of recruits. Such medical officers will be extended Federal recognition in advance of other troops if qualified under the regulations of the Militia Bureau.

The physical requirements for officers are the same as those for enlisted men, except as follows: Defects of vision resulting from errors of refraction which are not excessive, and which may be entirely corrected by glasses, do not disqualify unless they are due to, or are accompanied by, organic disease. The physical examination is based on fitness for service in campaign. No candidate for commission will be considered who is not a citizen of the United States or who has not declared his intention to become a citizen; who is less than 21 years of age (see age for grade qualifications), or who is not physically qualified to discharge all the duties of an officer in active service. . . .

Officers of the Reserve Corps, United States Army, are not eligible for appointment in the National Guard, active or reserve, while members of such Reserve Corps. (Par. 224, N. G. R.)

(2) Waiver of Moral and Professional Tests.

Under the provisions of section 75 of the act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, and upon the recommendation of the governor of a State or Territory, or of the commanding general of the District of Columbia militia, the tests for moral and professional fitness may be waived by the War Department upon application in the case of officers appointed in the National Guard who have held commissions as officers of the United States Army or Marine Corps and who have served creditably, have not been discharged for incompetency or physical defects, and who have been honorably separated from the United States Army or Marine Corps since April 6, 1917; provided, that such appointees are appointed in the National Guard to the same branch and in the same or lower grades as those in which they served in the United States Army or Marine Corps, and are appointed in the National Guard within one year from the date of separation from the United States Army or Marine Corps. (Par. 222, N. G. R.)

THERE APPEARS TO BE NO PROVISION FOR WAIVER OF PHYSICAL EXAMINATION FOR THIS CLASS.

(3) Nature of Examination in Order to secure Federal Recognition.

The board will make a thorough inquiry into and report upon the following with reference to each candidate: His antecedents; his morals and character; his educational opportunities and qualifications; his business and professional experience; his conduct, efficiency, and soldierly habits while a member of the Regular Militia or Volunteer forces; and his probable efficiency and aptitude for the service. The board is authorized to call on candidates to submit in writing any desired information not in its possession. (Par. 242, N. G. R.)

If a candidate has served in the United States Army, the Regular Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, or in any of the volunteer forces of the United States, or in the Organized Militia or National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, he shall submit his discharge papers for each term of service; if still in any of the services mentioned he shall submit recommendations of his immediate commanders. (Par. 243, N. G. R.)

If an applicant has attended a prescribed regular course of instruction in any military school or college of the United States Army, or has graduated from any educational institution to which an officer of the Army, Navy or Marine Corps has been detailed as commandant or instructor pursuant to law, he shall be required to present the diploma or certificate from such military school, college or educational institution. (Par. 244, N. G. R.)

The Chief of the Militia Bureau will refer to the board all the data in the War Department bearing on the qualifications of the candidates whose records are before the board for consideration. (Par. 245, N. G. R.)

Each candidate will submit to the board the following individual record:

(a) Give the exact date and place of birth.

(b) Are you a citizen of the United States? If not, have you declared your intention to become a citizen of the United States, and if so, when?

(c) What schools or colleges have you attended? Give dates of attendance and designation of schools, etc., and state whether or not you were graduated, together with degree, if any, received.

(d) In what professions or occupations have you been employed since boyhood, and how long have you been engaged in your present occupation? Give names and occupation of your employers.

(e) Have you ever served in the volunteers, the Organized Militia or the National Guard, or in the United States Army, the Regular Army, Navy or Marine Corps? If so, state the rank held and the dates of service.

(f) State the place of your present residence.

(g) Are you married or single? If married, state number of minor children. (Par. 246, N. G. R.)

In addition to the above information the candidate will submit to the board testimonials or certificates as to his moral character and fitness for the position of a commissioned officer, and these testimonials and certificates will be forwarded with the report of the board. (Par. 247, N. G. R.)

The board will conduct such inquiries as will enable it to render an opinion, based upon observation, oral questioning of the candidate, and upon all available data, as to whether the candidate possesses the qualifications to be desired in a commissioned officer. (Par. 248, N. G. R.)

All candidates, except for commissions as company officers of Infantry or Coast Artillery, will be required to undergo a practical and oral examination in equitation and in equipment of saddle horses, the scope of which will be sufficient to decide upon their ability to accompany a mounted command on ordinary marches, to perform the duties of mounted staff officers, to carry dispatches in the field, and to saddle, unsaddle and care for a horse in emergencies. (Par. 268, N. G. R.)

THE PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS ARE SET FORTH IN ARTICLE 6, page 68, of the National Guard Regulations, which gives the entire scope.

The following Circular Letter No. 66, dated 26th December, 1919, is published as being of interest as showing the attitude of the War Department on the time allowed for qualifying:

COPY.

M. B. 210.1

DECEMBER 26, 1919.

CIRCULAR LETTER No. 66.

From: The Chief, Militia Bureau.

To: The Adjutants General of all States, the Territories of Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the District of Columbia Militia.

Subject: Compliance with the provisions of paragraph 38, National Guard Regulations, 1919.

1. In order to comply with the provisions of paragraph 38, National Guard Regulations, 1919 (section 75, Act of June 3, 1916), it will be necessary that all National Guard officers extended Federal recognition by the War Department pass successfully the required tests as to their physical, moral and professional fitness. It is the policy of the Militia Bureau, however, to allow a newly appointed officer of the National Guard one year from the time of Federal recognition in which to fully prepare himself for examination unless he complies with the provisions of paragraph 222 of the above cited Regulations, in which event the requirement as to tests for moral and professional fitness may be waived by the Secretary of War. During this time it is contemplated that he will have had the opportunity of attending officers' schools, armory drill and one field encampment. It is deemed advisable to have one or more permanently organized examining boards whose personnel, appointed by the Department Commander, should be changed as infrequently as possible in each State in order that the examinations may be handled in routine manner as officers become available for examination. Officers will be ordered before examining boards as soon as practicable after they have completed one year's service. Officers of less than a year's service should be ordered up for examination only in case they volunteer or apply to take the examination before the expiration of a year. In order that the officers may prepare themselves it is deemed expedient that this matter as well as the requirements for professional examination in all arms as contained in Article VI of the National Guard Regulations, 1919, be called to their immediate attention.

2. In view of the fact that preparation is not necessary in so far as the physical examination is concerned, and in order to avoid unnecessary complications due to the discharge of National Guard officers on account of physical disability in the event of being called to active duty for Federal service, it will be necessary that all federally recognized National Guard officers not so examined be physically examined without further delay. It is requested, therefore, that steps be taken to have all such National Guard officers examined physically and reports as to the result thereof submitted to this Bureau on Form 95, M. B. A report of examination should also be furnished on the prescribed Form 95, M. B., in the case of each National Guard officer who has already been physically examined and no report submitted or report has been submitted on another form than that prescribed. In connection with the examination of these officers, attention is invited to the provisions of paragraph 251 of the National Guard Regulations. These examinations must be conducted by Medical officers of the Regular Army or the National Guard, active or reserve.

By direction of the Secretary of War:

J. McI. CARTER,

Major General, G. S., U. S. Army.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,

JESSE F. STEVENS,

The Adjutant General.

REPORT OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

---

BOSTON, December 31, 1920.

To The Adjutant General, Massachusetts.

The following report of the Inspector General's Department of Massachusetts is herewith submitted.

The Inspector General desires at the conclusion of this, his first annual report, to express his sincere appreciation for the co-operation and valuable assistance rendered him by The Adjutant General, Massachusetts; also by Col. Louis Scherer, in charge of militia affairs, and to the officers assigned as Inspector-Instructors by the War Department, all of whom have been untiring in their efforts in behalf of the National Guard. Their work has been of incalculable value to the department and to the State.

REPORT OF THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL.

BOSTON, December 14, 1920.

To The Adjutant General.

The following report of the Judge Advocate General's Department for the year 1920 is submitted.

The work of the department for the past year has consisted chiefly of clearing up the claims for injuries and damages caused by the calling out of the State Guard in connection with the Boston police strike in 1919, and giving opinions and decisions with reference to the reorganization of the National Guard.

At the beginning of the legislative year the department was represented at all hearings of the committee on military affairs, numbering over fifty, and presented the views of the military establishment, together with all claims for the State Guard and National Guard for which no other provision had been made.

Twelve claims for personal injuries and twenty-two claims for property damage have been reported at this office, and the proper action taken by suitable boards.

One civil case relating to the ownership of certain personal property is still pending in Brockton. One civil case relating to the property accountability of a State Guard officer is still pending in Boston.

Six cases of trial of enlisted men of the State Guard by summary court-martial have been reported, all of which resulted in conviction. Two cases of trial of enlisted men of the National Guard by special court-martial have been reported, both of which resulted in conviction.

One hundred and twelve opinions and decisions on various military questions have been rendered.

For reasons stated in the report of 1919 it is recommended that the Legislature be requested to adopt (a) "An Act relative to courts-martial in the land forces," and (b) "An Act relative to aid to the civil power," both of which appear in full in said report.

The department has during the present year been reorganized as authorized by National Guard regulations, and now has sufficient commissioned personnel to properly function.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH M. SMITH,

Colonel,

Judge Advocate General's Department, M. N. G.

REPORT OF THE CHIEF QUARTERMASTER.

---

BOSTON, December 30, 1920.To The Adjutant General, Massachusetts.

STATE CAMP GROUND.

Referring to my report of the year 1919 relative to the disposal of buildings erected by the United States Navy in 1918, I wish to state that the bath houses bordering Eastern Avenue were sold by the United States Navy and removed, leaving the ground in a much more presentable condition, thus relieving the proposed action of neighboring house owners to ask the Legislature to order the buildings torn down. The mess halls were left standing, the navy turning over the same to the Commonwealth.

Roofed as they were for short occupancy, it was necessary to resurface the buildings with a lasting material, so that to-day they present a useful storage space, 300 by 60 feet.

The old stable was repaired and put in sound condition, and is now used as a storehouse classed as House C.

The dwelling house, Houses A and C were painted this year, and it is contemplated to paint the remaining buildings at the arsenal during the year 1921.

The Air Service Department of the United States Army made application for the use of the parade ground for aviation purposes from May 1 to November 30, which application being presented to the Governor and Council resulted in the Commonwealth leasing the ground to the United States government for a monthly rental of $300.

WORCESTER PROPERTY.

As it was known that the field artillery batteries assigned to Worcester would not be horse-drawn, at least for the present, no repairs were made to the barn, but the parade ground was leased by permission of the Governor and Council for the summer, and up to November 30, 1920, to Mr. J. H. Mann of Worcester for aviation purposes at a rental of $1,000.

STATE-OWNED TRUCKS.

With the issuing by the United States of some 300 motor trucks the need of a storage building is vital.

It is estimated that about 40 motor trucks can be stored in armories.

The balance should be stored in some central location, the Framingham camp ground being the only available State-owned spot.

I have asked for an appropriation of $50,000 to build a proper structure to house the motor vehicles which represent a value of over $200,000, and at the same time comply with the requirements of the United States government as to safeguarding and caring for the trucks issued as a part of the National Guard equipment.

The occupancy of the various armories by the National Guard as increased will require certain changes and additions to meet requirements. The necessary cost has been estimated and the amount included in the estimate of moneys needed for the year 1921 in the budget of the State Quartermaster and of the Armory Commission.

ARMORIES.

The use for various purposes of the armories increased much during 1920, causing increased expense to the State, especially in repairs.

The winter of 1919-20 being so severe much damage was caused to the roofs of the armories, but repairs have been made to remedy all defects.

The Natick Armory received a new granolithic floor in the basement, adding much additional needed space.

A cellar was excavated under the Plymouth Armory which, together with the subdivision of the same this year, will put this armory on a par with other single company armories as regards storage, living and other accommodations. The same work should be done at Northampton.

The General Court approved the request of the Armory Commission for $50,000 to cover the ramp at the Commonwealth Armory, which work was completed November 15, 1920, making the necessary space available for the occupancy of the additional Field Battery and Headquarters of Field Artillery now stationed in the building.

As an item of repairs much painting was done during the year, but such work is not completed throughout the State, but is contemplated in 1921.

The disbandment of the State Guard found the State with a large amount of property not regulation, which as a result of survey was deemed surplus and ordered sold.

The money receipts for the year were as follows:—

Rental of armories (including lease of armories to the United States Navy), . . . . .	$10,434 75
Lease of State camp ground, . . . . .	2,400 00
Lease of Worcester land, . . . . .	1,000 00
	$13,834 75

Appended is a detailed report of the cost of the upkeep of the armories of the first class.

REPORT OF DEPOT QUARTERMASTER.

The report of Lieut. Col. Albert L. Wyman, M. N. G., Retired, depot quartermaster, follows: —

BOSTON, December 17, 1920.

By direction of The Adjutant General, a report of the Depot Quartermaster, M. S. G., is hereby submitted for the year 1920.

At the beginning of this year the Depot Quartermaster with his office force were still on duty at the supply base, Commonwealth Armory, which was established there in September, 1919, this being made necessary by the Boston police strike. All troops, with the exception of the Quartermaster's company, were relieved from duty previous to January 1, 1920. The Quartermaster's company was retained on duty during the greater part of the month of January because of the necessity of packing and transporting to the State arsenal at Framingham the large amount of Quartermaster's and ordnance supplies that remained at the supply base in Boston. A considerable quantity of supplies, such as worn shoes, overshoes and rubber boots, gloves, socks and underwear in broken sizes, damaged cots and mattresses, and a miscellaneous assortment of unused tableware, all of which it seemed impracticable to store, were, at the request of the Depot Quartermaster, declared surplus by the Board of Survey and ordered sold. After inviting sealed bids from interested dealers, these supplies were sold to the highest bidders, there being received from such sales the sum of $11,755.59.

On January 28 all supplies in charge of the Depot Quartermaster having been removed from the Commonwealth Armory, and the detail making up the Quartermaster's company having been relieved from duty, the Depot Quartermaster's office was moved back to the State House.

During the year application having been made from the towns of Wakefield and Stoneham, and the city of Methuen for the purchase by each town of 25 caliber 45/70 Springfield rifles for the use of their schools, these rifles were sold to the several towns for the sum of $3 each, after having been declared surplus by the Board of Survey and the sale authorized. There remained on hand at the State arsenal at Framingham 5,454 of these Springfield rifles that had been purchased by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the use of the State Guard organizations formed in 1917-18. These rifles were old style and in poor condition. Request was therefore made that the Board of Survey declare them surplus and authorize their sale. This request was granted, and Capt. H. B. Parker was authorized to dispose of said rifles to the best advantage, the proceeds of such sale to be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be credited to the appropriation of "maintenance of State Guard, 1920."

During the year as the several units of the State Guard have been disbanded, the Quartermaster's and ordnance property has been turned in to the State arsenal, except from the companies in armories where units of the new National Guard were stationed. To these National Guard units there has been turned over such ordnance and Quartermaster's property as was needed, the balance being turned in to the State arsenal.

With the closing of the supply base all trucks that had been loaned to the Quartermaster's Department by the Massachusetts Highway Commission were returned. With the turning over of the highway trucks to this department, Mr. Joseph P. Delaney, an inspector of the Commission, was assigned to us to have general supervision of the trucks. He was made truckmaster, and by his ability, interest and constant attention to the numerous and trying details of the work it was possible to get from a minimum number of trucks a maximum amount of service. His assistance was of great value to the department.

Capt. Herbert F. Staples, M. N. G., retired, was detailed as an assistant to the Depot Quartermaster in the early days of the police strike, and remained on duty until the closing of the supply base. The Depot Quartermaster wishes to express warm appreciation for the very able assistance rendered by Captain Staples.

ALBERT L. WYMAN, M. N. G., Retired.

Very respectfully,

WM. B. EMERY,
Colonel.

REPORT OF THE UNITED STATES PROPERTY AND DISBURSING OFFICER FOR MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, December 31, 1920.To The Adjutant General.

I herewith submit my annual report as United States Property and Disbursing Officer for the year 1920.

The Federal property issued to the former National Guard and charged to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has now, with a very few items excepted, been accounted for, and my account of this property with the Federal government is practically cleared.

The large amount of ordnance loaned to the Commonwealth last year to arm and equip the State Guard has now been returned, with the exception of a part of the 1917 rifles and Colt revolvers, but these are being rapidly collected, and authority has been received to return them to the nearest Federal arsenal.

The property accounts were audited in January and approved by the Federal Auditor.

The new National Guard commenced organizing early in the summer, and this office received its first requisition for Federal property on July 7, 1920. Since then there have been federally recognized two regiments of infantry, two regiments of field artillery, ten companies of coast artillery, one squadron of cavalry, one regiment of engineers and one motor supply train. More than 750 requisitions have been forwarded to the Militia Bureau from this office, representing over $4,000,000 worth of Federal property, and already about $2,000,000 worth of Federal property has been received by the several companies and at the State arsenal. With the exception of the horses and forage, issued to Massachusetts, the cost of all this Federal property is borne by the government, and it will not be deducted from the annual Federal allotment to this Commonwealth.

The Federal government has upon hand a very large amount of motor transportation, and if the Commonwealth had the proper storage facilities to house this matériel, the government would issue free of charge to this Commonwealth the entire motor transportation required for a division, which it is now understood will soon be authorized to be formed in this Commonwealth. It is hoped that the Legislature will see fit to appropriate a suitable sum for storage facilities at the State arsenal for the vast amount of matériel and motor transportation to which the Commonwealth is entitled from the Federal government.

The financial duties of the office are again increasing. When the account of the Federal appropriation was about $1,000,000 each year, and we had 7,000 members in the National Guard, the payments of accounts through this office were sufficient to keep one clerk busy upon that work alone, but with the increasing appropriation, which must come from the Federal government to maintain a division consisting of 19,385 men; with the additional pay rolls of the stablemen in the mounted branches of the Guard, the expenses of Inspector-Instructors, Sergeant-Instructors, and the payment of all troops while in camp, these duties will be more than doubled. The financial accounts of this office were inspected by Maj. E. S. Miller, Inspector-General, U. S. A., audited and found correct. All of the suspended accounts under the former National Guard have been allowed or repaid.

I desire to return my thanks for the great assistance I have received throughout the year from the officers of the regular army stationed in Boston, and especially The Adjutant General, Massachusetts, the Chief of Militia Affairs, 1st Corps Area, and the State Quartermaster, Massachusetts.

CHAS. F. SARGENT,

Lieutenant Colonel.

United States Property and Disbursing Officer.

REPORT OF THE CHIEF SURGEON.

---

BOSTON, November 30, 1920.To The Adjutant General.

Immediately following the demobilization of State Guard troops, who had been on active duty during the fall and winter of 1919, incident to the Boston riot, it became the duty of the Chief Surgeon to carry, on a special hospital pay roll, all officers and men of the Massachusetts State Guard who had been sent to hospitals or other quarters on account of sickness or injury incurred in line of duty. This duty demanded, in addition, the medical treatment and care of all patients from the day of their release from quarters up to the time they were able to resume their regular employment in civil life. Seventy-two patients in all were taken care of, the treatment extending from the 1st of November, 1919, to the 1st of May, 1920, a total of 3,087 days for which pay was received.

Following the subsidence of affairs in connection with the Boston riot, an active campaign was begun in recruiting the National Guard. A board of medical officers was constituted during the early part of March to examine candidates for commissions appearing before the Military Service Commission, but owing to the recency of the World War, and the Boston riot following so closely after, recruiting for both commissioned and enlisted personnel was severely handicapped. This was especially true regarding prospective medical officers. In addition to these deterrent factors, the strict interpretation of War Department regulations, which until recently demanded adherence, particularly regarding the required length of service necessary for qualification, made a commission in the Medical Corps appear very unattractive. Practitioners of medicine who have served in the army and have learned from experience the sacrifices to private practice which must be borne in order to serve efficiently are the most difficult to interest in new commissions, and the recent graduates from medical schools, made doubtful of their success in civil life from observation of the experience of their colleagues who have served, are far from enthusiastic. Yet in spite of the difficulties encountered, a Medical Corps, consisting of two-thirds of the required strength, has already been organized, and through its untiring efforts has been the means of bringing the new National Guard up to its present strength.

During the past year the Board on Claims for Physical Injuries heard 22 cases, the largest number ever recorded for one year.

There were 85 physical examinations made of applicants for peddlers' licenses.

Physical examinations of applicants for State aid have greatly increased, it being now necessary for them to report to this office two days a week. An estimate of the increase in applicants may be gained from the fact that during the five years prior to 1920 only 135 were examined in all, while during 1920 alone 950 have been examined.

The sum of $2,223.38 was realized from the sale of State Guard Medical Department property, sold under authority of The Adjutant General, this money being turned over to the State Treasurer as received.

It is again recommended that the salary of the Surgeon General be increased on account of the great increase in work and the necessary time demanded for the proper accomplishment of this work. I recommend that his salary be increased to $2,500, the present salary of $1,500 being entirely inadequate.

This department owns 22 unnecessary Ford ambulances, which at an expense of not over $100 each could be made available as touring cars. It is recommended that instead of selling these at a great sacrifice to some dealer, they be transferred to some other department of the Commonwealth in need of transportation, thereby saving the cost of purchase to them.

It is understood that the Sanitary Train of the National Guard will have 46 G. M. C. ambulances and about a dozen

5-ton Mack trucks. Each of the three units of the Sanitary Train will have authorized a mechanician who will have to devote eight hours each of the seven days of the week to the care of the motor transportation of the unit. It is recommended that a suitable garage be erected in Boston to house these vehicles. It should be heated and lighted and have machine-shop facilities in order that these vehicles may be kept tuned up and ready for operation at all times. This is considered much more desirable than housing the vehicles in an unheated, isolated shed where they will of necessity, in the winter time, have to be stripped of all parts liable to damage by the cold, and will not be available for duty until after many days' work.

F. P. WILLIAMS,
Colonel, Medical Corps.

REPORT OF THE CHIEF OF ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT.

---

To The Adjutant General.

I herewith submit my report for the year ending December 31, 1920.

Since I did not assume the office of State Ordnance Officer until March 29, 1920, per Special Orders, No. 55, The Adjutant General's Office, facts occurring prior to that time have necessarily been obtained from the records of this office.

The present head of this department was commissioned March 18, 1920, and qualified for duty March 22, 1920.

Maj. George W. Langdon was commissioned June 23, 1920, and qualified for duty June 23, 1920.

Capt. James F. Loughlin was commissioned June 1, 1920, and qualified for duty June 9, 1920.

Capt. Joseph T. Lawless was commissioned June 14, 1920, and qualified June 17, 1920. Captain Lawless was selected as a member of the rifle team representing the United States at the Olympic games held at Antwerp, Belgium, in 1920. After returning to the United States as a member of this victorious team, he vacated his commission in the Ordnance Department by being commissioned captain, 103d Regiment Field Artillery, M. N. G., on September 15, 1920.

Capt. Arthur A. Hunt was commissioned September 23, 1920, and qualified September 29, 1920.

Only two enlisted men have been accepted for the Ordnance Department, both men having had long experience as members of military organizations of Massachusetts. These men are Sergeant of Ordnance George M. Jefts and Sergeant of Ordnance Frank H. Kean, both appointed sergeants of ordnance October 8, 1920.

The commissioned and enlisted personnel of the Ordnance Department, M. N. G., as authorized by regulations, consists of 1 lieutenant colonel, chief of department, 2 majors, 3 captains, 11 sergeants of ordnance, and 20 privates, first class. At the present time one vacancy exists for major and one vacancy for captain. No effort has been made to fill the enlisted personnel vacancies; consequently, 29 men will be recruited and the department filled as soon as qualified men are available.

The activities of this department have been devoted to the encouragement and development of rifle shooting among civilians throughout the Commonwealth, and to the men of those units that had been accepted by the Federal government. No effort was made to promote outdoor shooting among members of the Massachusetts State Guard, as it had been in process of disbandment during the season. Considerable subcaliber work was performed by the State Guard in their respective armories during the year.

CIVILIAN RIFLE CLUBS.

Seven civilian rifle clubs were inspected during the past year, and in all cases were recommended for acceptance by the National Rifle Association. The clubs referred to are: —

Brookline, Mass., High School Rifle Club.
 Pittsfield, Mass., General Electric Rifle Club.
 Needham, Mass., Rifle Club.
 Hudson, Mass., Rifle Club.
 The Ames Rifle Club of North Easton, Mass.
 Leominster, Mass., Sportsman's Association Rifle Club.
 Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Rifle Club.

TARGET RANGE, NATICK, MASS.

One problem of importance that confronted the head of the department upon taking command was that of developing the land at Natick, Mass., for target shooting.

Approximately 209 acres of land had been purchased by the United States government in 1915 for the purpose of converting it at some subsequent time into a suitable target range for the use of the units of the National Guard of Massachusetts, and such other purposes provided by law.

Previous to purchase, officers of the National Guard of Massachusetts (including ordnance and line officers) and an officer of the regular service recommended its purchase. Request was made to the Militia Bureau for $15,000 to develop this land for target shooting, and the request was refused on account of no units having been accepted by the Federal government. This was under date of July 9, 1920. The matter was kept alive, however, and after units were accepted another request was made under date of September 23, 1920, and this time the request was granted, and the Militia Bureau per 6th inst. to original letter of June 23, 1920, Special Ordnance Order to The Adjutant General, authorized an appropriation of $15,000 for the development. At this time plans and specifications are being prepared for this development.

In connection with the construction of this range, the views of some 20 experts throughout the United States have been requested. The National Rifle Association and many individual officers have offered valuable suggestions and plans. It is expected that provisions for shooting will be completed by the beginning of the next shooting season.

This range should be developed into a modern plant capable of serving the entire Guard, if necessary, when it is completed.

The fact that the Rifle Range at Wakefield is leased by the United States Marine Corps indicates the necessity for other provisions to be made to take care of the rifle qualification work of the National Guard of this State, especially those units not provided with range facilities by cities and towns in which they are located.

The development of the range at Natick will be pushed as expeditiously as possible to an early completion.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF MASSACHUSETTS RIFLE TEAMS.

Exceptional results were obtained this year by the rifle teams selected and trained by this department and sent as civilians to the National Rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, which were held from July 31 to August 28, 1920.

The selection and organization of a National Guard team, from those who shot as civilians at Camp Perry, into a military team to represent the National Guard of Massachusetts at the Sea Girt matches was accomplished only by the great assistance rendered by The Adjutant General and the State Surgeon, Massachusetts, in co-operating with the Ordnance Department in having the members of the civilian team examined physically and assigned officially to federally accepted units. The spirit manifested by the men in enlisting so that the new National Guard of Massachusetts might uphold the traditions of the soldiery of this State was a manifestation on the part of all concerned that merits the highest admiration of all citizens of this Commonwealth.

No such record was ever made by a team from this Commonwealth. Wonderful records were the result of their participation at Camp Perry, Ohio, Sea Girt, N. J., and Wakefield, Mass.

The following report gives, in detail, the results, as a team and as individuals: —

State Rifle Team at Camp Perry, Ohio, August 1 to 28, 1920.

In accordance with par. 2 (a) Special Orders, No. 121, The Adjutant General's office, Massachusetts, dated Boston, July 24, the following were designated as constituting the personnel of the Massachusetts State Civilian Rifle Team, to represent the Commonwealth of Massachusetts at the national matches held at Camp Perry, Ohio, August 1 to 28, inclusive: —

Team captain, James F. Loughlin.

Team coach, George Jefts.

Team quartermaster, Roy W. Greenleaf.

Team range officer, Harmon A. Hallett.

Firing Members.

Dr. John L. Bastey, Eugene P. Carver, Wallace I. Darling, A. V. Harrington, Frank H. Kean, Isaac Langille, Duncan M. Stewart, Eric McGee Newcomb, Malcolm F. Partridge, Walter E. Myers, Walter K. Queen and Daniel S. Wendel.

Alternates.

Edward J. Muse, Nathaniel P. Sipprelle and Donald B. McCollom.

On July 31 the new men (men who had never fired in a national match) left for Camp Perry, Ohio, with the United States Marine Corps and the United States Army Coast Artillery Team.

From August 2 to 10 was spent in practice under the supervision of officers of the Small Arms Firing School at Camp Perry.

Massachusetts was very fortunate in having Capt. James H. Keough, who is well remembered as a former member of Massachusetts and United States rifle teams, as their instructor.

On August 9 the older members of the team left Boston for Camp Perry, arriving the following day.

On August 11 the National Rifle Association matches began, and in these matches the Massachusetts men, even though they were obliged to use the government ammunition issued, won far more than their share of the prizes.

The following places won by Massachusetts men are worthy of note:—

	Score.
Members' Match (600 yards).

Herrick Trophy Team Match (Palma course, 800, 900 and 1,000 yards).

Massachusetts Civilian Team No. 1:—	800 yards.	900 yards.	1,000 yards.	Total.
Loughlin, J. F., Capt., . . . . .	75	75	70	220
Harrington, A. V., . . . . .	74	69	70	213

Total, . . . . .	589	576	570	1,735

The following, taken from "Arms and the Man," the American's rifle magazine, of September 1, 1920, is of interest:—

With a score which broke all Palma world's records, the Herrick trophy was won by the Massachusetts Civilian Team No. 1. The Herrick is one of the classics of the Ohio State Rifle Association program. It was fired this year under N. R. A. supervision. It follows the Palma course of fire, calling for two sighting shots and fifteen shots for record at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards. It is one of the supreme tests of long-range shooting.

Forty-eight teams, each anxious to win the distinction of being victorious in the Herrick, including the pick of the service contingent as well as the National Guard and civilian outfits, went on the firing line.

The 800-yard stage of the match presented no very special difficulties to the experienced riflemen competing. The light was bright, and the wind easy to compensate. Marine Corps Team No. 3 took the lead and held it through this part of the shooting, finishing at the top with 593 points to its credit, with the Massachusetts boys second, on a score of 589.

The 900-yard stage of the match was shot under conditions which were far from ideal. The same troublesome gale that marred the last hours of the Wimbledon kicked in off Lake Erie and romped spasmodically across the range, to the discomfiture of many of the contestants. At the close of this stage the Massachusetts Civilians had closed the gap between its score and that of the Marines' third team, and added a few points to the good, with a total 1,165.

The 1,000-yard stage brought the real test of skill. Rapidly changing light in the face of a coming shower, and sufficient wind to call for skill in estimating corrections, accompanied the shooting.

Fairly early in the game it became apparent that the final struggle would not be between the Massachusetts boys and the Third Marines, for this particular team of Leathernecks got over the long range with no better than 560 points, while Marine Corps Team No. 4 cracked out a total of 571. The Massachusetts team, however, managed to hand up a 1,000-yard total of 570, one point below that of the Leathernecks, and this, with their excellent score made at the shorter ranges, gave them the victory.

National Individual Rifle Match (200, 600 and 1000 yards). — Kean and Loughlin won silver medals, with a score of 282 out of a possible 300. Newcomb won a bronze medal, with a score of 279.

Pistol Matches. — The Massachusetts pistol shots, Bastey, Partridge, Darling, Queen, Myers and Hallett, also did very good work. Darling won a gold medal in the National Individual Pistol Match. Bastey and Myers won silver medals in this match. The team finished in ninth place in the National Pistol Team Match.

National Team Rifle Match (200, 600 and 1,000 yards). — In this most important match, Massachusetts finished fourth, only six points behind the crack Marine Corps Team and eleven points behind the United States Navy Team. Without question, the shooting of the twelve men from the Bay State was the most sensational witnessed at Camp Perry this year.

The "Arms and the Man" had this to say of the Massachusetts Team: —

The shooting of the Massachusetts team on the long range is worthy of note, man for man having outshot even the winning team during the worst weather conditions of the entire match. The individual average of the Massachusetts team at 200 yards was 96.08; at 600 it was 92.16, less than the 1st Marine Corps team and the navy team. Yet when it came to the 1,000-yard stage this civilian outfit was able to put up an average of 86.25, which was close to a full point per man better than that made by the infantry, more than a point better, man for man, than that made by the navy team, and nearly three points better than that made by the Marine Corps team.

The final standing was as follows:—

	200 yards.	600 yards.	1,000 yards.	Total.
1. United States Infantry, . . . .	1,178	1,116	1,027	3,321
2. United States Navy, . . . .	1,168	1,116	1,021	3,305
3. United States Marine Corps No. 1, . .	1,179	1,118	1,003	3,300
4. Massachusetts, . . . .	1,153	1,106	1,035	3,294

State Rifle Team at Sea Girt, N. J., September 1 to 10, 1920.

In accordance with authority received from The Adjutant General while at Camp Perry, a National Guard team was organized to go to the New Jersey and New York State matches which are annually held at Sea Girt, N. J. The following-named officer and men were selected to represent the Commonwealth in the above-mentioned matches:—

Team captain, James F. Loughlin, Captain, Ordnance Department, M. N. G.

Team quartermaster, Roy W. Greenleaf, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Firing Members.

Harmon A. Hallett, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

A. Vernon Harrington, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Paul M. Martin, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Donald B. MacCollum, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Eric McG. Newcomb, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Malcolm F. Partridge, Private, Troop D, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

Charles J. VanAmburgh, Private, Headquarters, 1st Separate Squadron Cavalry, M. N. G.

According to statements made in several of the leading New York and Boston papers, the shooting of the Massachusetts team was the most sensational ever witnessed on the Sea Girt range.

Out of nine team matches entered, Massachusetts won seven firsts, took second in one, and sixth in the other. Massachusetts won the McAlpin trophy, 71st Regimental trophy, Cruikshank Regimental trophy, Interstate Regimental trophy, New York Company Team Match, Cavalry Company trophy, and the New Jersey Company Team Match. The team took second place in the Dryden trophy Match, losing to the United States Infantry team by only nine points.

The following places won by Massachusetts men are especially worthy of note: —

New Jersey Two-man Team Match (600 and 1,000 yards).	Score.
3d place, Loughlin-Partridge, . . . . .	182
Nevada Trophy (600, 900 and 1,200 yards).

Gould Rapid Fire Match (200 and 300 yards).

Roe Match (1,000 yards).
1st place, Loughlin, . . . . .	97

--------------------------	-----------	------------------------------

The classic event of the tournament, the United States Marine Corps Long Distance Match, 800 and 1,000 yards, it will be noted, was won by the two-man team representing the National Guard of Massachusetts.

In every respect, the showing made by the teams representing the Commonwealth of Massachusetts during the season of 1920 has been entirely satisfactory, and great benefit was derived by the officers and men participating in these events which will be eventually to the great benefit of the Massachusetts National Guard and to the service in general.

The various prizes won by the 1920 teams are now on exhibition in Doric Hall, State House, Boston, Mass.

Too much credit cannot be given to the captain of the team, Capt. James F. Loughlin, and the members of the team, for their most remarkable and exceptional work during 1920. Their practice days were limited, and other discouraging conditions make their accomplishments without parallel in the shooting annals of this State.

INSPECTION OF OUTDOOR RIFLE RANGES.

Another important activity was the inspection of all the outdoor rifle ranges for the State forces throughout the Commonwealth. Thirty-three ranges have been inspected by an officer of this department, with a view to determining their suitability for use for rifle practice work. This inspection covered a month's intensive work. The results of this inspection are on file in this office, and copies of same have been forwarded to Washington for War Department files.

ORDNANCE REPAIR DEPARTMENT.

An ordnance repair department was established during 1919 at Commonwealth Armory, and is fully equipped to make all necessary repairs.

Plans are being prepared for the indoor small-arms work for the winter season. Likewise plans are in preparation for target work for 1921.

AN APPRECIATION.

The opportunity cannot be permitted to pass without mentioning the efficient services performed by Maj. George W. Langdon, as executive officer to the State Ordnance Officer and to Capt. James F. Loughlin, in the training and development of the rifle team, and in performing efficiently his other duties.

The assistance accorded this department by The Adjutant General, Massachusetts, the State Quartermaster and the State Surgeon has contributed materially to our efforts.

Hearty co-operation has been had at all times from the officers attached to the 1st Corps Area Headquarters, United States Army.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

It is recommended that the sum of $2,500 be placed at the disposal of this department with which to buy match ammunition for the season of 1921. At least 2,000,000 rounds of .22 caliber (short) ammunition should be purchased for the small bore practice.

The State should lend its hearty support to further the efforts of the Massachusetts Civilian Rifle Team.

It is recommended that the development of the 1921 National Guard team should commence about May 15, 1921. Sufficient funds from the appropriation for rifle practice should be allotted for this purpose.

It is recommended that the cities and towns where National Guard units are located be notified as to the condition of ranges found upon inspection by this department.

It is recommended that the thanks of the Commonwealth be extended to the officers in charge of the Navy Rifle Range at Wakefield, through the Secretary of the Navy, for the courtesy and assistance rendered the members of the Massachusetts Civilian and National Guard teams during the year 1920.

It is recommended that a fully equipped ordnance repair shop be obtained for the Commonwealth, so that ordnance personnel attached to artillery regiments, and also other personnel, can receive the necessary training, in time of peace, in the care and maintenance of ordnance matériel. The large quantity of ordnance matériel that will be in use by the State troops requires a trained personnel in maintaining this property in proper condition. The advantages of this equipment for training the personnel require no explanation.

It is further recommended that the department be utilized by all connected with the military forces of this Commonwealth, so that it will serve the purpose for which it has been designated by Federal and State laws. Only in this way can it function properly and carry out its full scope in all ordnance matters, — maintenance, care and accountability.

REPORT OF THE STATE ARMORY COMMISSION.

CAMBRIDGE, December 15, 1920.

To The Adjutant General.

I have the honor to hand you herewith my report as acting secretary of the Armory Commission for the year 1920.

The roof on the Plymouth Armory has been repaired, and new ventilators, etc., furnished.

The grounds of the Taunton Armory have been enclosed with an iron fence and gates.

In June the Commissioners advertised for bids for the one-story addition to the Commonwealth Armory, covering the ramp, and awarded the contract to Daniel G. McDonald & Co. of Roxbury, the lowest bidder. This work is completed, and will give much-needed storage room, as well as improving the lower story.

On September 27 and 28 Commissioners Emery and Cox made a tour of inspection of the following armories: Clinton, Fitchburg, Framingham, Greenfield, Holyoke, Hudson, Marlborough, Natick, Northampton, Orange, Springfield and Worcester.

On October 1 a delegation of gentlemen from Quincy appeared before the Commissioners, requesting that a two-company armory be constructed in Quincy. The Commissioners recommend that this armory be built, as Quincy should have an armory, and under the law the Commissioners must construct armories throughout the Commonwealth until all the troops are properly housed.

GEO. HOWLAND COX,

*Armory Commissioner,
Acting Secretary.*
